New York, July 6.-Seventeen ship-wrecked sailors, who have just arrived here on the Prince Line steamship Sardinan Prince, from South America and West lan Prince, from South America and West Indian ports, tell of a battle with that most dreaded of all enemies at sea-fire. The men embarked at Barbudoes, having been forwarded from there by the United States consul. The men belonged to the American ship Belle of Bath, which was burned at sea on Jung 18, about 150 miles eastward of Barbadoes. Their trip was one which they are never likely to forget. All went well until June 5, when the first week's journey was at an end. The ship was sailing along in fairly good weather, when suddenly it sprung a leak. Captain Curtis ordered all hands to the numps promptly, as the leak was found to be a bad one. The water gained upon them steadily, and every moment it looked as if the vessel would go to the bottom. After twenty-four hours of constant work the water was reduced in the hold, but the leak could not be stopped, and the crew worked in relays for nine days pumping the water out.

rang through the ship. In a few minutes dense clouds of smoke were issuing from the forecastle, accompanied by flames. The fire soon was shooting high in the air, and, fanned by a breeze, was threatening the whole ship.

Captain Curtis realized at once that his vessel was doomed, and boats were hastily provisioned. With marvelous rapidity the flames spread all over the ship, and the men were forced to make haste to get into the boats.

The boats dropped away to leeward, and the men were put to the oars and rowed The boats dropped away to leeward, and the men were put to the oars and rowed away to a safe distance. By this time the ship was a blaxing furnace. The flames had reached the oil and burst from every part of the vessel. When the flames had eaten their way into the hold a tremendous explosion was heard. The decks of the ship flew up, the sides burst, and a great hedy of smoke and flame filled the air. It took perhaps half an hour to finish the work. When the smoke died away, the men in the yawl could see the Belle of Bath had been burned to the water's edge. A heavy sea was running, and with every sweep of the oars the little lifeboat was in imminent danger of being swamped. Under light canvas 120 miles were made, and after twenty-four hours' struggling in the rough waters land was sighted. It was early Sunday morning, and the crew offered up a prayer for their hicky oscape.

A BATTLE WITH QUICKSAND.

Gang of New York Firemen Worked Three Hours to Save a Man From Burial.

New York, July 6 .- A gang of firemer was engaged nearly all the forenoon in siruggle to save a workman from being engulfed by quicksand in Henry street, where excavations for a new building have been in progress for several days. Rev. Father Speliman, of St. James' church, was on hand, prepared to give the man extreme unction, should it he found impossible to save him. The man was at work twelve feet down in the excavation, which is twelve feet square and lined with planks. Without warning the planking gave way, and the quicksand of the street poured in on him. Before he could give the alarm he was engulfed to the waist. His cries brought two plumbers to his aid, and while one held him by the hands, the other rushed for assistance. Word was sent to a fretruck house for help. Twelve men were detailed, who hurried to the spot with shovels and began digging the sand out. Their efforts appeared to be of no avail, as the sand entered faster than it could be shoveled out. The imperilled man called for a priest, and Father Spellman was summoned, and he at once prepared to administer the consolation of religion. For two hours the hattle was waged without avail. The news of the struggle spread throughout the East side and the crowd about the scene of the struggle mumbered nearly 1,000. Once the man was almost hauled out, but the sand fell in around him and he was again buried as badly as before. Finally, at 12.36, he was released, having been imprisoned three bolirs. He said he felt all right after being extricated. struggle to save a workman from being enguifed by quicksand in Henry street,

WIPED OUT BY A TORNADO.

Minnesota Town Destroyed Yesterday Afternoon and a Number of People Killed.

Duluth, Minn., July 6.-Dispatches received here late to-night at railroad offices say that a tornado has obliterated the town of Lowry, Minn., and that four people were killed and several injured.

The second report is that seven persons were killed and many were injured, while another is that ten were killed.

The tornado struck Lowry shortly after o'clock this evening. Evidences of the funnel shaped cloud were seen in Duluth about 7 o'clock. The sky was overcast with clouds that circled as they moved rapidly northeast, and there was a yellow cast that was ascribed to the sun penetrating through them. People looked in wonder on the scene, but nobody ascribed the conditions to a tornado.

Gienwood, Minn., July 6 .- A destructive tornado passed through the town of Reno this afternoon about 2 o'clock. It started about a mile southeast of the village of Lowry, destroying the barn and part of the home of Iver Leigen. Every building in the village of Lowry was injured, seven dwelling houses, depot, church, elevator and butcher shop being totally destroyed, while the railroad tracks were twisted and telegraph wires were torn down and part of a mill was carried away. From Lowry, the storm continued in a northeasterly direction to the farm of Robert Peacock, where it made a clean sweep of all the buildings. STRUGGLE IS NOW ON

OUTCOME WILL BE KNOWN SOON

WEST VIRGINIA MINERS SLOW IN QUITTING WORK.

They May Cause the Failure of the Strike by Supplying the Demand for Coal-Many Illinois Miners Also Fail to Go Out.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 6.-The strike order of the national executive board of the Inited Mine Workers of America was obey ed by from 10,000 to 15,000 of the 21.000 minrs in the Pittsburg district to-day. The great struggle is now on in earnest, and developments of the next tew days will determine the success or failure of the fight for a uniform mining rate. Pittsburg is the pivotal point in the five states engaged in the contest, and the success of the local officials in their efforts to secure a general suspension in this district will have an important bearing on the outcome of the movement. While it is estimated that at least two-thirds of the miners have thrown down their picks, enough men are still at work to seriously impair their chances unless they can ultimately be brought out. This President Dolan confidently claims can be done. The operators, on the other hand, are in no wise disconcerted, and assert that the strike cannot succeed. The first break in the operators' ranks diggers refused to work, and the mine was losed down, but a notice was posted that after to-day the 69-cent rate would be ruld. It is not likely that the officials will allow he men to work until a majority of operaors have agreed to the miners' demands. In West Virginia the miners have been slow in responding to the strike. A dispatch to-night says that a general strike in the state is not probable. The men are not organized and they are inclined to regard the strike elsewhere as favorable to their chances of securing plenty of work at good prices while it is pending. Great pressure is being brought to bear upon them by the United Mine Workers' officials to join the strike, but so far without success. The impression among both operators and miner in this state is that West Virginia will be able to supply the demand for coal in the event of a prolonged strike, and that the operators will be justified in offering the miners inducements to remain at work, as did in 1894. nville, Iil., July 6.—The miners of the Danville district are all at work and will not strike. The Kelley Coal Company men, he only ones who had grievances, were tranted concessions by the company, which ncessions by the company, cents pted. It is stated that they have been fooled two or three times by the miners in Southern Illinois, and they are waiting fooled two or three times by the miners in Southern Hillinois, and they are waiting to see what they will do.

Indianapolis, Ind., July 6.—The Indiana commission to-day sent letters to the labor commissioners of Ohio, Pennsylvania and Hilinois, inviting them to meet with the Indiana commission in this city at as early day as possible to consider the possibilities of arbitrating the coal miners' strike. The Indiana commission hopes for favorable responses to its invitation and in case the labor commissions of the four states meet the coal operators will be asked to meet with them in an endeavor to terminate the strike before it is far under way.

Beliaire, O., July 6.—To-day is really the first day of the big coal miners' strike in this district, although a large number of the men came out yesterday.

Quite a surprise was created last night when it became known that the operators of the Schick mines, three miles west of this city, had granted the advanced scale and the miners there had returned to work. However, this morning a committee waited upon the miners at these mines and commanded that they must cease work at once. This they did. Fully 5,990 miners in this district are now out and by the cond

Cincinnati. O., July 6.—The Cincinnati Central Labor Council of the American Federation of Labor met to-night and pussed resolutions demanding that President Gompers and Secretary Morrison call an immediate meeting of the executive board to consider a proposition to aid the miners in their strike. A weekly assessment of 19 cents on each member of the order and its affiliated bodies, which would realize $00,000 per week for the striking inners, is suggested.

Will Increase Kansas Demand, Topeka, Kas., July 8.—(Special.) State Labor Commissioner Johnson says that the strike of the coal miners in the East will no doubt increase the demand for Kansas coal and that Kansas miners will be given more work. There are about 16.000 miners in the state, and they are working from one to three days a week on an average at the

STATE OFFICERS HELD UP. Cailed Upon to Foot the Colored Free

Silver League Convention Bills.

Topeka, Kas., July 6.-(Special.) The lest act of the delegates to the Colored Free Silver League state convention was circulate through the state house day and hold up as many Populist officials as possible for money to pay board bills. The convention closed last night, and the delegates expected to get off on the late trains, but several of them had no money with which to pay their bills and the col ored landlords held their grips. This caused the entire delegation of six to remain over night. How to raise money to meet the bills was the question. Finally I. B. Gibbs, of Kansas City, Kas., one of the for-revenue-only colored Populists evolved a scheme. He had a number of opples of the resolutions indorsing the state administration and Webb McNail struct off, and the whole crowd started to round up the state officials. They would first religious for the meeting and flash the resolutions and follow this with a demand for some cash.

internor Leedy paid 22 for the indorse-ent by the club of his veto of the railroad II. State Auditor Morris was hit next.

Governor Leedy paid at for the maliroad bill. State Auditor Morris was hit next. He came up with a similar amount after Gibbs told him that he (Gibbs) withdrew in his (Morris') favor for state auditor at the Abilene convention, and that if it had not been for that Morris would never have pulled through. Attorney General Boyle was touched up for B.

When the delegation reached the railroad commissioners' office, it found only one member there. William Campbell. Gibbs cast his eye about and told his mission. He said he wanted to see Dilhard, but as he was not there it was useless to tarry longer. "It will do no good to ask you to help us." said Gibbs to Campbell, as you are the Republican member of the board." Campbell is the rankest Populist in the state house, and it made him so mad to be accused of being a Republican, that he ran the winde outfit out of the office.

All of the other officers were visited and enough money was raised to meet the board bills and leave the delegates a surplus for use after they get home.

One of the state officers who was held up said that it was nothing more than he expected. When he heard of the Colored Free Silver Zengue was in session here he knew that the delegates would be around on a holdup tour.

"That nigger Gibbs, of Wyandotte, is the dest orneriest nigger I ever knew," said Uncle Dave Heffiebower, state treasurer, today, after telling how Gibbs and the crowd held him up. was made this afternoon by J. W. Steen, of the O. I. C. mines, at Rossville. The of Kingman, Likely to Be Selected. Topeka, Kas., July 6.-(Special.) The all absorbing topic under discussion at the state house is the probable successor to J. W. Breidenthal as committeeman-at-large of the Populist state committee and chairman of that body. It is rumored that there will be a reorganization of the board of railroad commissioners before the commitrailroad commissioners before the committee meets the latter part of the month, and that Lewelling will be let out. His successor will then be chosen as chairman of the state committee. In this way the chairman will be drawing a good fat salary as railroad commissioner and can spend all his time doing political work. If the matter takes this shoot, J. M. Allen, of Erie, treasurer of the state committee, is considered as a formidable candidate for commissioner. Allen was a candidate for commissioner. Allen was a candidate to start with, but was turned down. Should it be decided not to make any change on the railroad board, W. L. Brown, of Kingman, chairman of the state board of charities, will likely be chosen as chairman of the state committee.

Monroe Campbell killed Charles Gordon in a fight at Leavenworth about ten years ago, and was sentenced to twenty years in prison. His friends are now attempting to secure his release. A pelition telling of the many good traits of Monroe, the injustice done him by the jury which convicted him, and urging his pardon, was presented. The name that heads the list is that of Lucien Baker, United States senator. The next day after this parition was filled a remonstrance was filed profesting against the pardon. In it Monroe is accussed of being a desperate negro, absolutely dangerous to society, a cold-blooded murderer, and a man who ought to be confined in prison all his natural life. The first name on the remonstrance is that of Lucien Baker. United States senator. D. A. Hook, law partner of Senator Baker, also signed both the petition and the remonstrance.

THIS YEAR'S C. E. CONVENTION TO BE GREATER THAN ANY BEFORE

CONVENTION BEGINS TO-DAY.

ATTENDANCE PROMISES TO EXCEED ALL EXPECTATIONS.

Every Arrangement Made for the Entertainment of the Thousands of Visitors Who Are Pouring Into San Francisco-Opening Concert.

San Francisco, Cal., July 6.-It is already evident that the Christian Endeavor con cution which opens to-morrow will be the greatest in the history of the organizaion. The attendance will more than excoed anticipation, and the royal welcome extended to the delegates hisures the suc ess and enthusiasm of the gathering. All day long trains have been rolling in, and have been met by members of the reception ommittee, which of itself is a small army or the white caps of those whose mission was to welcome the strangers within our The latchstring of California is out, and he initials "C. a boundless hospitality. Never before, not even by the Knigh Templar or Grand Army, whose nation reunions were held here, have arrangements been so well made, or the city so astefully decorated as now. The whole auditorium above and below is carded in, and the rough timbers are covred with purple and gold. The floors are overed with burians, under which is a pading of cotton wadding, so that the for teps will be noiseless and the services will ot be interrupted by persons moving about. Potted plants, palms, bamboos, cut flowers and wreaths of roses are every-where, and the California poppies, either fresh from the field or in tissue similitude may be seen at every turn. Machinery hall is divided off into compartments, and in each are committees representing the different states.

Thus, when the delegates from any state arrive, they go immediately to the space set apart for them, and there register their names in a book alphabetically arranged. If the delegates are alert there can be no confusion. A strange Endeavorer finds the stand of the committee on reception: goes to one of those in charge, presents his or ner card and is given a badge and one of the books on California that have been published by the state board of trade; the same with other committees, hotel or other accommodations, liferature, souvenirs, etc. The arrangement is simple and admirable. This afternoon there was a rehearant of the convention chorus, numbering 1,500. With them were the bouquet chorus and 100 trained soloists. The decoration of Woodward's pavilion The decoration of Woodward's pavilion, a simultaneous meeting place, is proceeding rapidly, and will be completed to-morrow. This amphitheater will accommodate over 19,000 people, and as all the churches will keep open house, no Endeavorer will be left out in the cold.

To-morrow the preliminary work of the convention begins. General Secretary Baer is delighted with the outlook, for he believes that this convention will be memorable in the annals of the Endeavorers.
